Amazing school good teachers.

I have very good contact with teachers and staff. They are very helpful and they react quickly on any problems that I raise.

This school has been brilliant for my child.

The extra curriculum activities are a huge help for my child's future.

I have no issues with Hester's Way.

Teacher support for The Pates Grammar test was appreciated.

I am really very happy with my child at school.

The teachers are very helpful and have helped my kid improve in many areas.

Great efforts by teachers in improving my child.

I just love this school, it really is great. Well done guys 😊

Really pleased with how my child has settled into Year 6. Happy with teacher and moving forward to secondary school.

School has been brilliant in helping me and my child.

Great at dealing with issues promptly.

Very good school.

I have always recommended this school to other parents.

This is a good school.

Very supportive to both children with their respective needs.

I couldn't be happier with my child here. I wasn't sure at first but wouldn't take him out.

My child has improved a lot throughout his time in this school.

I think the school is amazing. The teachers are approachable and friendly.

My child... has made some great friendships.

Fantastic school. My child is always happy and learning.

Really good with general family support.

My child is improving with teachers support and love. Now he can understand the language. My child is reading at home. It's a huge difference. Thank you very much.

Area for improvement:

My child's reading and speaking.

Parent communication.

Different snacks at breaktime.

Concerned about disruptive child in class.

Would like to see more playground equipment.

Everything is perfect.

Bullying.

Cookery classes – it's a life skill.

None.

Behaviour.

More after school activities in a range of areas as my child doesn't like sports.
